○ 3005 Sarah Faust Artwork

Birthday Cake, from artist Sarah Faust, is part of her efforts to capture the human body as a beautiful and fragile form. In photographing herself and loved ones, she investigates vulnerability, even in mortality. Her attempts to reveal the complexities and the beauty of our human existence result in truly moving and poignant works.

DONOR: Sarah Faust

VALUE: $800

○ 3010 Sarah Stonefoot Photograph

From Sarah Stonefoot's most recent body of photographs, Suspension is an investigation of domestic space and botanical material. Given her desire to experience nature firsthand, she prepares for each photograph with a sensory exploration. It is only after she has altered the botanical material, pulled it apart and stripped leaves from its stem that she can find in nature something new, something different and something unexpected. Sarah Stonefoot is Visiting Assistant Professor of Art at Beloit College. She received her BFA in photography from the University of Buffalo and her MFA in photography from Illinois State University.

○ 3020 Michele Valdez Photograph

In her most recent work, Michele Valdez has looked at the cheap, simple objects that play a role in marking the important events in our lives. In the process of creating the images, Michele is looking to exploit the way digital processing can blur the boundaries between photography and other media. Light Series #14 comes from her Light Series 2008, in which she took multiple exposures of light strings, and manipulated the images digitally to create abstractions and patterns. Holiday lights are resilient in the face of change, and Valdez finds the optimism they project in even the bleakest of locations to be very moving. Prepare this piece for your home with a $50 gift certificate for framing from Artists' Frame Services.

○ 3025 Troy Williams Photograph

This provocative piece, Gun, is from Troy Williams's series I Want to Know What Love Is, I Want You to Show Me which is strongly influenced by late adolescence, a time when everything is very intense and fantasies are heroic and often based on slices of popular culture. Williams graduated from the Minneapolis College of Art and Design (BFA) in 2002. His works have been exhibited in Minneapolis at the Intermedia Arts and the Minnesota Center for Photography. In Chicago, his work has been exhibited at the Museum of Contemporary Photography and Art Boat for 1/Quarterly Space.
